

Eight new members joining Leadership Council in 2017

Posted by Paige Oxendine on Nov 18, 2016

The Network is thrilled to be adding eight new members to Leadership Council in 2017. Leadership Council members serve for a term of three years and work alongside Chamber staff to providing guidance and vision for the organization. The Chair of the Leadership Council also holds a seat on the Chamber's Board of Directors each year. Click through to learn more about our newest council members and see the full roster below!

New Members, effective January 1, 2017:

Brandi Bartel, The Victim Center

Justin Coyan, Springfield Area Chamber of Commerce

Laura Head Elliott, The Elliott Space

Jessica Harmison, Maxon's Diamond Merchants & Estate Jewelers

Jason Klein, Logic Forte

Jeff Parkison, City Utilities

Ryan Sivill, BKD, LLP

Shanda Trautman, Old Missouri Bank

The Network's Leadership Council, 2017:

Chair: Britton Jobe, The Law Firm of Neale & Newman, LLP

Vice-Chair: Kristin Carter, Central Trust & Investment Co.

Mandy Anthes, The Bank of Missouri

Brandi Bartel, The Victim Center

Jeremy Brokate, Brokate Janitorial

Ashley Clair, Springfield Business Journal

Justin Coyan, Springfield Area Chamber of Commerce

Laura Head Elliott, The Elliott Space

Jessica Harmison, Maxon's Diamond Merchants & Estate Jewelers

Brandon Kennedy, John Deere Reman

Jason Klein, Logic Forte

Marshall Kinne, Med-Pay, Inc. and Immediate Past Chair

Caitlin Kissee, Propel People Development

Nick Menke, Convoy of Hope

Jeff Parkison, City Utilities

Ryan Sivill, BKD, LLP

Shanda Trautman, Old Missouri Bank

Paden Wilcox, Computer Recycling Center